

Discover the Delaware Bay with us!

FREE Public Programs offered Spring 2018

Explore the Delaware Bay by Foot

Take a breathe of fresh air! After a long winter indoors, join us for one of our hikes this spring and learn more about Delaware's habitats. Please be sure to wear sturdy, closed toed shoes and dress for the weather. Please double check locations before registering.

Saturday, March 3, 6 PM - 7 PM

818 Kitts Hummock Road, Dover, DE

Join staff from the Reserve and the John Dickinson Plantation to take a full moon night hike out to the historic Kingston Upon Hull home. Along the hike participants will learn about nocturnal animal adaptations and what it would have been like to live along the St. Jones during colonial times. There will be approximately 2 miles of walking on uneven terrain.

Tuesday, April 10, 6 PM - 7 PM

801 Blackbird Landing Road, Townsend, DE

Kick off April by joining Reserve staff to learn about the native trees of Delaware and their importance. There will be approximately 1 mile of walking on uneven terrain.

Volunteer with us!

Pot Native Plant Seedlings at the St. Jones Saturday, April 21, 9 AM - 12 PM

818 Kitts Hummock Road, Dover, De

Join Reserve staff at the St. Jones Reserve on April 21st in celebration of Earth Day to pot native plant seedlings. These seedlings will be tended to and grown in the St. Jones's native plant nursery this summer and will be planted next fall at the Blackbird Creek Reserve. Come out and help make a difference in your local environment!

All ages are welcome. To register call the St. Jones Reserve at (302) 739-6377.

Volunteers will need to supply their own work gloves.

Education Volunteer Training Thursday, March 1st, 9 AM - 12 PM
